Approved For Release 2000/08/03 : CIA-RDP75-0014 MAY 1 6 1964 NEW YORK TIMES

STATINTL

SWEDEN ASKS LIFE
FOR WENNERSTROM

Special to The New York Times
STOCKHOLM, May 15—Werner Ryninger, public prosecutor, demanded today life imprisonment for Stig Wennerstrom, the Swedish Air Force colonel charged with spying for the spying for the plonage, but parole can be granted after 10 or 12 years.

HELSINKI, Finland, May 15 (AP)—A British engineer was arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take the consequences of his acts, Carl arraigned yesterday in the Su-parently unconcerned, told the court he was ready to take